

High School Summer Reading List
Summer 2024- 2025

Students should read the text for their grade level. Students will have to purchase their own copy of the book so as to be able to write notes and annotations in the margins. Selections will be discussed and tested at the beginning of the first quarter. Students must complete the test corresponding with the text on their grade level. Tests not completed by the end of the first quarter will be made up in a mandatory 9th period during the first week of the second quarter.
